Tutoring Experience

My journey as a tutor began over eight years ago, working with a diverse group of students across various educational levels. I've taught IB, AP, A-Level, and IGCSE History and English, helping students develop a strong foundation in these subjects. My approach is student-centered, focusing on each individual's strengths and areas for improvement. I have a particular interest in integrating historical analysis with literary critique, allowing students to appreciate the interconnectedness of these disciplines. I've worked both in classrooms and one-on-one settings, which has honed my ability to adapt to different learning styles. Over the years, I've successfully guided students through their exams, with many achieving top grades and gaining entrance into prestigious universities.
